Comprehension of Woolf	Evidence of your completion and comprehension of the reading is not provided, unconvincing or very incomplete.	Evidence that you have done the reading and gotten something from it, but comprehension of core concepts and coverage of readings are superficial or incomplete.	The central concepts are adequately explored, though reference to readings could be clearer. Cedes too much space to quotations from the material rather than digesting the reading and putting it in your own words.	Demonstrates deepening comprehension of the core concepts. Covers the required readings thoroughly and cites them appropriately, but puts them in your own words.	2

Selects relevant experiences and applies Clifford’s critical insights to them in a manner that indicates comprehension of Clifford and critical reflection on your own experience. Remains in your voice; doesn’t cede too much style or content to outside voices (Clifford, other authors you cite).	2
